FOREIGN MINISTER DELBOS
TOURING EUROPEAN CAPITALS

PARIS, Dec. 2 (United Nations Press) — French Minister of Foreign Affairs, Jean Delbos, arrived in Paris today for the first stop on an extensive tour of European capitals. He will be accompanied by his wife and two children. He will also be accompanied by his secretary, Jean-Pierre Delbos, and his personal secretary, Jean-Pierre Delbos.

Delbos is expected to visit London, Rome, Bern, Zurich, Vienna, Prague, Bratislava, Warsaw, Bucharest, Sofia, Belgrade, Zagreb, Ljubljana, and Bratislava. He will also visit the Soviet Union, Poland, Czechoslovakia, and Yugoslavia.

Delbos is expected to return to Paris on December 10.

HERE and THERE "On the Air"

FRANCES ACKERT

Seventeen-year-old heart interest of the popular CBC novelty group, "The Fashionettes," heard with Percy Faith's "Streamline" every Thursday at 7 p.m. Frances made her radio debut on the network last fall.

"BOY AND GIRL FRIEND"

Heard money through Friday on the CBC national network from Vancouver are the "Boy and Girl Friend" song and patter team. They are presented at 10 a.m. each quarter hour of informality and also are featured with Harry Price and his orchestra on the Wednesday evening program, "In Modern Mood," broadcast over the midwest and western outposts at 9 p.m. In private life they are Mr. and Mrs. Byron Tibbette. Byron plays the piano and strangles for Marcella.

DARCY MARSH

Well-known Canadian journalist and essayist, who is heard every Thursday at 10 p.m. on the national network of the CBC, has a series of broadcast talks entitled "Democracy at Work." Mr. Marsh gained international recognition as a biographer of the late Sir Henry Thornton, one of the founders of the Canadian National Railways. Mr. Marsh is a native of Hamilton, Ontario, and has been awarded in active newspaper work in Ontario and Alberta. His present series of talks deals with the workings of Federal Administration and he recently spent much time in Ottawa making study of the subject.

and Robinson with microphone and lantern.

The slightly tipsy truck driver, who evidently thought that he was witnessing a display of the supernatural, or a bad accident, finally and fortunately tumbled to what was going on. He then frantically whispered that the customer was on the air. With a disgusted "You're that air!" he retraced his steps, an accomplishment in itself, to his truck, banged the door again, and drove noisily off.

Probably the only car that passed all night, it would, of course, come along during the only five minutes that mattered at all.

CBC PROGRAM OF GAY PARISIAN MUSIC AND SONGS

MONTREAL, Nov. 29.—Paris with its music and sparkling scenes provides the setting for the fast-moving program, "Bonjour, Paris!" broadcast every Tuesday at 9 p.m. E.S.T. over the national network of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation.

Joe Delagrè, singer and song writer, who said at first, to the French capital a few months ago to seek new laurels in Canada, brings a true Parisian atmosphere to the broadcast. The orchestra is directed by another son of Gay Paris, Andre Durois, who came to Canada on a visit some fifteen years ago and has remained in Montreal ever since.

Complimenting the international setting are Jeanne Mouton, character actress and singer, who came from Belgium; Andre Treich, comedian, who was born in St. Pierre-Miquelon; Delval, the "Lady of the Chansonette," and Henri Letourneau, master of ceremonies, who are both Montreals.

ILLUSTRATED NEWS OF THE WEEK

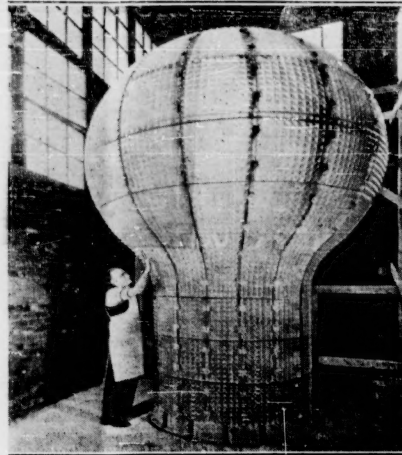

A SPECIAL TRIBUNE FEATURE

THE BEST OF THE WEEK'S INTERESTING NEWS PICTURES

ONTARIO'S GOVERNMENT HOUSE MAY BE CLOSED

Chesley Park, official residence of Ontario's Lieutenant-Governors since 1915, shown above, is very much under discussion at present. As long as Hon. Dr. Bruce remained in office, Premier Mackenzie has declared he would not carry out his promise to close the palatial mansion, but now Dr. Bruce has retired and Albert Matthews, Toronto broker, has been appointed, effective November 29. This might bring about an auction sale of the furnishings and the sale or offering for rent of the splendid site. It is estimated there would be a saving to the province of approximately $20,000 a year.

NOT FOR USE IN HOME

This is an electric light bulb, but it would not fit in your floor lamp. Its size—it is 14 feet high—makes it impossible for such purposes, and it is also a trifle heavy. It is made of 6,000 pounds of glass, and a steel skeleton of the same weight is included in the ensemble. The bulb is to surmount the $10,000 memorial to Thomas A. Edison at Menlo Park, N.J.

NEW COLORS FOR ROYAL IRISH

The Duke of Gloucester presenting Colors to the Royal Irish Fusiliers, the ceremony being held in the Picture Gallery of St. James's Palace, owing to bad weather.

BRITAIN'S NATIONAL FITNESS CAMPAIGN

This photograph shows Lord Aberdare, chairman of the National Advisory Council of Physical Training, talking to some of the sturdy and healthy-looking girls and young men, members of the National Fitness Display, who took part in the Lord Mayor's Show at London.

PRESIDENT CARDENAS

Claiming that President Cardenas of Mexico (above) is dominated by the Communists, Nicolas Rodriguez, now living in exile in Texas, predicts his downfall "within six weeks."

COL. FRANCOIS DE LA ROCQUE

Fascist leader in France, who was called a traitor and liar in open court by former Premier Tardieu. He is Roque is suing a group of men for slander because they charged him with accepting government "secret funds."

BABE BACK FROM HUNTING TRIP

Babe Ruth presented a most unusual picture upon his return to New York from a Canadian hunting trip, his car loaded down with three deer, a moose, 14 ducks and 35 woodchucks. He did not claim to have bagged the moose.

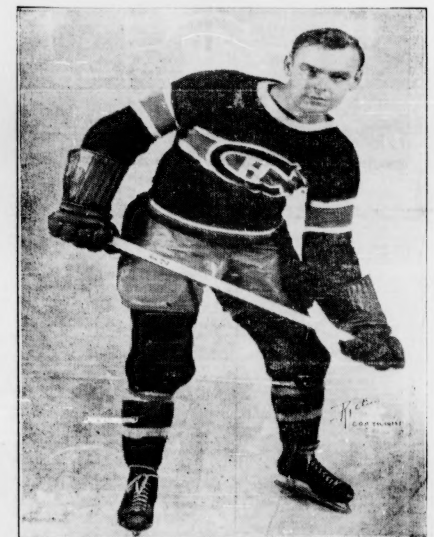

BRAZIL'S DICTATOR

At the moment this picture was taken, Brazil became what practically amounts to a Fascist state, under the control of a dictator. The historic broadcast was made when President Getulio Vargas (above) declared Brazil a corporate state, which virtually places the South American country on the same plane as Germany and Italy.

"THE HAPPY GANG"

Radio's newest and gayest group of entertainers—"The Happy Gang"—presented Monday through Friday at 12 a.m. over the national network of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation from the Toronto studios. The group consists of (left to right) Bob Parson, Blain Mathews (George Temple, producer), Bert Pearl (master of ceremonies), and Kathleen Stokes (soprano).

JACK DOYLE

Off on a cross-Atlantic chase for witnesses to aid in conviction of his many legal battles, Jack Doyle, Ireland's crooning grandfather, sailed from Montreal on the Canadian Pacific liner Duchess of Bedford. The court affray involves Mrs. Delphine Doyle, Crownwell Baker (Globe, automobile heiress, who is being sued for $2,000,000) by Doyle's former wife, the actress Judith Allen, who charges alienation of affection. Doyle hoped to find two important witnesses in Montreal but, failing, set his course for England.

SOUR NOTE AT PEACE CONFERENCE?

Apparently things were not going so well at the Nine-Power Conference at Brussels for the purpose of solving the Sino-Japanese tangle, judging by the expression of Norman H. Davis, United States Ambassador-at-Large, as he talks with Anthony Eden, British Foreign Minister.
